PORTLAND and the
OSTEOPATHIC HOSPITAL OF MAINE...
THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

Portland is a dynamic urban center with all the cultural, educational, recreational and epicurean amenities you would expect in a city many times its size. But Portland offers more...a small town charm and flavor you won't find anywhere else.

You are within minutes of the ocean and fresh water beaches; major alpine skiing resorts are within an hour; cross-country skiing from your back door; museums, galleries, theater, the symphony and superb restaurants; and a supportive, friendly environment within the "hospital family" and the community.

OHM provides internship and residency training programs for all osteopathic medical college graduates, as well as clinical rotations for the students of Maine's only medical school, the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine.

The Osteopathic Hospital of Maine is a 150 bed acute care, general hospital, recently enlarged and renovated, located in Maine's largest city. We offer a full range of medical and surgical services to the 250,000 residents of Southern Maine. OHM has over 130 Attending and Associate Medical Staff members including more than 70 General Practitioners.

Portland and the Osteopathic Hospital of Maine offer the Best of Both Worlds...for you.

Auxiliary to the MOA

The Auxiliary to the MOA contributes greatly to the success of this Convention and the MOA is grateful for its efforts and participation.

We urge all attendees to visit the AMOA Desk to learn more about the Auxiliary, obtain specific information on Auxiliary services and events, and to find out how you can participate. Information is available from President Debra Carter, Vice President Mary Herzog, Secretary Susan Palumbo and their associates in the Auxiliary.

The AMOA will hold its business meeting at 9:30 am on Saturday, June 30 in the Pen Bay Room.

Our Sincere Appreciation To....

The members and guests of the MOA who are attending our Convention.

The exhibitors and grantors who are supporting us and assisting in the presentation of the educational and scientific programs.

The men and women who give so graciously of their knowledge and time to speak at our educational sessions.

Mitch Garnett and the Samoset staff for their cooperation and courtesy in organizing our Convention.

Program Chairman Gary Ross, DO, MOA Executive Director David De Turk, Administrative Assistant Lois Small and Associate Connie Bates for arranging and coordinating these events.

William Voss, DO, President of the American Osteopathic Association and his wife, Helen, for gracing us with their presence.
Welcome to Maine...and the MOA!

Instinctively Secure

It's a feeling that stems from strength and knowledge. But it's built upon respect.

That's true in our business, too. Because it takes more than providing the proper medical malpractice insurance to assure security.

That's why our clients regularly receive not only professional advice, but also personalized attention.

By staying in touch we know our client's concerns, and can act upon them promptly. As a company directed for medical professionals, we know how much more that can add to your sense of security, without adding to your premiums.

If you'd like to find out more, write us at: Two East Gregory, Kansas City, Mo. 64114.
Or call (816) 523-1835. Outside Missouri, call toll-free 1-800-821-3515.
